

Thursday
14 December
18.30

Aula A11
Red Building
West Campus

The resurgence of totalitarian temptations: new realities for writers and journalists

Università
della Svizzera
italiana

Conversations with Salil Tripathi

Salil Tripathi, an Indian-born journalist and writer, has devoted his career to defending human rights. He has written three books and numerous articles in The Independent, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, The New Republic and many others. He is contributing editor at The Caravan. After living in Asia and Europe, he currently resides in New York. From 2015 to 2021, he served as Chair of PEN International's Committee for Writers in Prison (WiPC) and is now on the organization's international Board.

A small aperitif will be offered at the end

Event organized with:
Institute of Communication and Public Policy and Institute of Media and Journalism

pen
INTERNATIONAL

CENTRO DELLA
SVIZZERA ITALIANA
E RETOROMANCIA

 DAY OF THE IMPRISONED WRITER