

Università
della Svizzera
italiana

Accademia di architettura

Tuesday
7 October 2025
h 10:50

Hall C 0.63
Palazzo Canavèe

Architecture of Proximity. A Yardology of Tbilisi

Guest Lecture Duccio Fantoni

As part of the course "Social Architecture"
Professor: Sonja Hildebrand
Assistant: Lisa Henicz

- Duccio Fantoni is an architect and researcher operating between Italy and Georgia. After graduating with honors from the University of Ferrara in 2018, an experience complemented by an exchange at Waseda University in Tokyo. In 2020, he co-founded NOIA, an architecture and research studio. He is currently a PhD candidate at Politecnico di Milano (DASU). His academic appointments include roles as a Teaching Assistant at Politecnico di Milano, a Visiting Lecturer at the Free University of Tbilisi, and a Visiting Researcher at the Tbilisi State Academy of Arts and Georgian Technical University, where he has led workshops and international collaborations. In 2024, he co-founded the educational platform Lands on the Move, which focuses on experimental teaching at the intersection of the built environment and mobile territorial phenomena.