

I-VET - Project n. 2011-1-CH1-LEO0500052

Integration between workplace and training

I-VET Summer School – Mendrisio (TI), 26 – 29 August 2013

Are you teaching or coaching in an intercultural learning setting?

Would you like to improve the way in which you cope with diversity? Are you interested to learn new ways of supporting immigrants facing the challenge of social and professional integration?

Live an innovative experience!

You will enhance:

- your capacity of managing learning, guidance and counseling processes in a context characterized by cultural, linguistic and social diversities, ensuring mutual understanding and an effective communication
- ... looking at diversity adopting ethno-relative modes, reading the reality and coping with intercultural dynamics in an aware way...
- being capable of constantly reflecting on your personal and social experiences, in order to cope with disjuncture, setting up new mental frames based on intercultural sensitivity and competence

Learning path

- ➔ A preparatory phase on line, based on exchange and cooperative assignments (May - July 2013)
- ➔ 3 days of Intensive Program on field (beginning Aug. 26, 6 PM to Aug. 29), based on experiential and reflective learning modes, valuing peer learning in an international group
- ➔ An individual reflective Project work to be developed after the course, coached on line and assessed by the teachers staff
