

Il 14 Maggio alle ore 15:30 aula A12 (USI), il prof. Roberto Pardolesi (LUISS “Guido Carli”) terrà il seminario (in italiano) dal titolo

“Law and Economics. The Italian Job”

per gli studenti del corso ECO bachelor di Analisi Economica del Diritto. Il seminario è aperto a chiunque possa essere interessato.

On the 14th May, 03:30 p.m., room A12 (USI), Roberto Pardolesi (LUISS “Guido Carli”) will hold the seminar (in Italian) entitled for students of Economic Analysis of Law (ECO bachelor). The seminar is open to any interested parties.

“Law and Economics. The Italian Job”

Prof. Roberto Pardolesi is a Full Professor of Comparative Law and Professor of Private Law at the Faculty of Economics of LUISS “Guido Carli”, and Professor of Comparative Law at the Faculty of Law of LUISS since 1989. Prof. Roberto Pardolesi is widely acknowledged as being one of the most authoritative Italian academicians and practitioners in the fields of antitrust, comparative law and economic analysis of law. He was a pioneer in the introduction of interdisciplinary law and economics approaches in Italy during the 1970s. He is author and editor of several books and hundreds of articles and essays. Prof. Roberto Pardolesi is a member of the International Academy of Comparative Law, Italian Association of Comparative Law, Steering Committee of the European Association of Law and Economics, Italian Society of Sport Law, European Mergers Task Force, Scientific Committee of the National Antitrust Authority, Italian Commission for Bioethical Problems Concerning Procreation. He is co-editor of Foro Italiano, Mercato Concorrenza Regole, Danno e Responsabilità and member of the editorial board of Giurisprudenza Commerciale, Rivista Critica del Diritto Privato and other legal journals. (<http://docenti.luiss.it/pardolesi/>)